10. OLD BUSINESS

- A resolution will be posted notifying public of the sale of the Spang Building. The next steps will be to have a public hearing and to accept bid, if there has been no objection from the public. Supervisor Gould will notify the Board when the public hearing needs to happen.
- Robert Thomas has put in his resignation to the Water Board. An Advertisement has been placed and there has already been a couple of resumes/letter of interests submitted. There is a Water Board meeting on 2/17/16 to discuss applicants.
- Supervisor Gould spoke with Bobbi Elderkin, from Generations Appraisal Services, about being paid per parcel as per her proposal. She was fine with that. The Board would like information put on the Town website that the Town will be starting the reassessment process in spring 2016. The Clerk will check with Lou Anne Glass as to what info she would like put on there.
- Need a Van Sickle letter. Just waiting on an actual letter. Councilperson Iantorno will see if Justice Kirnan has a letter the Board can use. Supervisor Gould will also look to see if he can find one.
- The Board has decided to change the law for Dog license fee for not renewing license for over 1 year. Currently there is not a fee if late renewing a dog license. Per a resolution to be approved at the next meeting, the fee will be changed to anyone that has not renewed their dog license for over 1 year, will pay all past license fees plus a $20 administration fee. The Clerk will have the resolution ready for the next board meeting.
- There were more questions about Xpress Pay from the Board. According to Brian from Systems East, credit card payments are deposited in 2 business days and eChecks payments can be deposited next day. He did say the $6.50 and $5.00 statement fees are absorbed into the $15-$20 billed monthly. Jenna from County stated the County has used Xpress Pay for a little over a year and have seen a huge increase in payments for delinquent accounts. And they have had zero concerns thus far. The Board will also like to know what the County pays for the entire year and what other towns have already signed up for Xpress Pay. And if there is a contract with Xpress Pay or can they cancel at any time if they dislike it. Will contact Jenna from the County and Brian from Systems East.

11. NEW BUSINESS:

- Shaner Tek (Forest Shaner) would like a monthly increase of $5 per month for webmaster services. Current fee is $30/month ($360/year). New fee will be $35/month ($420/year). This will take effect March 1st 2016.
On a motion of Supervisor Gould, seconded by Councilperson Ingalls, to approve the monthly increase of $5 for webmaster services.
Aye-3, Nay-0 Motion carried.
