Aye – 4, Nay – 0, Motion carried.
- According to the assessor, 2 people can be on the review board but can be a problem if they are undecided about a property. The other 2 people on the review board need to be notified if they are going. One member has been notified but will wait to see if 3rd member will be absent. Might be able to be there.
- Price on crack sealing parking lot from Brad: Supervisor Gould is waiting for Carter to get back to him with an estimate.
- Moore Memorial Pool update: The Village has discussed the idea of lifeguard pay rate to be raised. The Town Board would like the pool committee to get together then present the Boards with the information. The Pool Committee also needs to make decision on lifeguard applicants and let the Village Clerk know who they would like to hire. Councilperson Wittenburg will try to get in contact with other committee members.

10. NEW BUSINESS:

- The County Election inspectors came and said the Town Hall needs lights in the parking lot by the back handicap parking spot and above the handicap entrance. Supervisor Gould will call Phil Barnes, an electrician, to see if available to do work.

- CDBG monitoring report needs completed:
 - Need written explanation as to how concerns will be addressed for all current & future grants. Supervisor Gould will work on this.
- Copier in Town hall needs repaired. Copier is about 10 yrs. old and part has already been replaced 3 times. Shawley's gave estimate of what new copier would be and it is around $500.
