10. REPORT OF TOWN OFFICIALS:

- Highway: Highway Superintendent Brad Schiralli gave his report to the Board.
Mr. Schiralli let the Board know that the used 9' box for the Sterling was delivered. He stated that the box looks to be in pretty good shape and will work on getting it on the Sterling after the snow season.
He also informed the Board that, after 42 years of service, an employee has decided to retire. His retirement date is March 22nd.
Mr. Schiralli and the Board discussed some options on whether to hire someone or not. Supervisor Gould is going to go over the union contract and see what it says. Mr. Schiralli will also be looking into the options as well.
Highway Superintendent Schiralli updated the Board on the status of the new dump/plow truck. It is currently being built at Harm's Fab Shop in Angelica, NY and is about 3 weeks from completion.
Mr. Schiralli also gave the Board a quote on a new pickup truck. This quote comes from Maple City Dodge. Supervisor Gould asked if the quote was off a state bid. Mr. Schiralli was not sure if it was state bid or a fleet price. Mr. Schiralli will find out.
He also updated the Board on truck and equipment mileage and that there was also 1 burial.
